

Dan Hague
Financial Legacy & Social Impact Planner

---

Dan Hague is a trusted advisor to individuals and families seeking to align their financial resources with their deepest values. As the architect of the “Craft Your Living Legacy” program, Dan partners with charitable organizations to create meaningful, lasting connections with their supporters—ensuring that donors are not only appreciated but empowered.

With over two decades of experience in financial services, and with clients from BC to Alberta to Newfoundland and even the Yukon, Dan brings a unique blend of technical expertise and heartfelt purpose to his work. He holds five professional designations and academic degrees, including the Certified Financial Planner (CFP®), as well as the rare & prestigious Master Financial Advisor in Philanthropy (MFA-P™). With an innate ability to translate financial topics into plain English, his approach is grounded in clarity, compassion, and a deep respect for the transformative power of giving.

Dan’s mission is to help donors Craft their Legacy—Now & Forever.
